

The Queen's Diamond Jubilee Celebration

The Queen's Diamond Jubilee Celebration
Britain turning red, white and blue
For four days of celebrations.
A million people lining the River Thames
To see the Queen as she set sail
In her Royal Barge.

On the river as far as the eye could see
Stretched in lines
Appearing like soldiers on parade
In best dress uniform
Boats of all colours, shapes and sizes
There were canoes, barges, war boats
And row boats carrying
Robin Hood and his Merry Men
Indians in a kayak with Union Jack Headdresses
Maoris in their war boat, wearing their traditional outfit
Proudly taking their place on the River Thames.

The Queen, celebrating her 60 year reign
Thousands of street parties with bunting fluttering in the wind
A blaze of colours
And a vast range of events held in streets
Traffic was banished as neighbours brought tables and chairs outside
Barbecues were lit
Friends, families and neighbours got together to celebrate this grand occasion
Featuring everything from the fifties style
Bands, bars, feasts, children
Funfairs and fancy dress
Firework displays that lit up the sky
It was spectacular

Even though the weather was horrible for the occasion
That did not stop the people having a lovely time.
What a memorable day it has been for the people of Britain
And everyone who took part in celebrating
This happy Jubilee.
